Atlanta Will Spoon Be Saturated With Yogurt Spots

But who cares! The westside needs a frozen yogurt option—and the rumor that The Yogurt Tap would be opening at White Provision? That's still a rumor (rumor here)

Opening on the corner of the White Provision residences between the main entrance and Maison Atlanta, Yoforia will join the recently opened Garden ATL and the relocated West Egg cafe.

A resident at White Provision saw the "Coming Soon" sign go up today but no official announcement has been made.

The space is a blank slate, white walls and no sign of construction. Considering a build out for the space is required, our prediction is set for an early to late September opening.

Yoforia Frozen Yogurt currently has locations in Georgia and North Carolina only. Other locations in Georgia include Athens, Brookhaven, Johns Creek, North Highland, Perimeter Mall, Vinings and Windward Parkway.
