Where

SID MASHBURN

Sid Mashburn knows style; the J. Crew and Tommy Hilfiger alum was voted one of GQ's 10 Most Stylish Men in America in March 2009. And he can pass on that style to you, thanks to his eponymous Westside menswear boutique. Modeled after an old-school haberdashery, the store offers "a collection of essential items offered from our perspective as a style concierge." Think A.P.C. denim, classic Levis 501s, Sartorio Italian suits, Clarks Desert Boots, Incotex trousers, plus lots of cool accessories. Full-service tailoring and style consultations are available.

BENNIE'S SHOES The Atlanta institution has been around for more than 100 years (it opened as a shoe repair shop in 1909), and they still do things the old-fashioned way. Today, its three locations carry more than 40 brands including Allen-Edmonds, Cole Haan, Johnson & Murphy, Florsheim and Grensons. Great customer services, and yes, shoe repairs are still available. 3 Atlanta locations including 2625 Piedmont Rd., 404-262-1966, www.benniesshoes.com.

says owner Chip Stockton. "Everything we do is understated, timeless." That includes the store's own label, plus other reputable lines such as Hickey Freeman, Kanale, Samuelson of Canada, Norman Hilton and Tommy Bahama. It's not all suits, though; they also carry casual clothes, women's clothes, shoes and loads of accessories. 1180 Peachtree St., 404-249-7002 and three additional Atlanta locations; www.hstockton.com.
