Room & Board

IN MID-APRIL, THE WESTSIDE PROVISIONS DISTRICT will welcome its newest tenant—Room & Board. The Minneapolis-based, family-owned furniture company sells classic, simple designs with a modern edge. And more than eighty-five percent of its furniture is manufactured right here in America.

The three-story, 34,000-square-foot Atlanta store (housed in an old meatpacking factory from 1910) will be the chain's first location in the Southeast. "From the day we created our company more than twenty-five years ago, our vision has endured — unique, well-designed furniture can be affordable and long-lasting," says founder and president John Gabbert.
